APPENDIX B

TRANSFER OF CONCENTRATION AND ELECTIVE COURSES

In addition to completing core courses as described in Appendix A, a student in Georgetown's Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies program must also complete 48 credits in a concentration and 21 credits in electives. This appendix describes how courses completed at Prince George's Community College will be counted toward the concentration and electives requirement at Georgetown.

A student at Prince George's Community College will receive transfer credit in the following concentration/elective areas in the Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies program at Georgetown University, for any listed course in which the student earned a grade of C or better. The student will receive the same number of Georgetown credits as were earned at Prince George's. Where a choice of concentration/elective field is indicated, the choice is the student's. Prince George's courses designated with a specific Georgetown field may be used toward either concentration or elective credit. Prince George's courses designated "General elective" may be applied only toward elective credit, not concentration credit.
